CENTRAL QUEENSLAND

NDIS Working for you

We are ready to support you

CatholicCare is an approved provider under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS).

The NDIS supports people with a permanent and significant disability which affects their ability to take part in everyday activities.

Your support may include:

- Personal care
- Respite
- Skills training to develop independent living
- Counselling services
- Community access and participation

Choice & Control

The NDIS will fund reasonable and necessary supports* that help people with disability to achieve their goals.

To be eligible for the NDIS, a person must:

- Have a significant and permanent disability that substantially reduces their functional capacity, or require access to early intervention supports
- Be an Australian citizen, a permanent resident, or a protected Special Category Visa holder
- Be under the age of 65

* Definitions on necessary and reasonable supports can be found on the NDIS website: ndis.gov.au
